

Things Grow Here

"We landed here and couldn't believe the opportunities for business. Then we just fell in love with the place."

- Jeff Shafer | Designer & CEO

I discovered Portland-Vancouver USA during a summer vacation and quickly realized this is the perfect place to relocate my business and raise my family.

A sophisticated and creative workforce, awesome quality of life for employees, direct access to Portland, local mountains and the ocean makes this an ideal location for any business.

For Agave, this environment inspires our team to develop our lifestyle apparel brand and do what we do best: make products that our customers love.
