

Land in Woodland, Live in Woodland.

We invite you to discover Woodland, the Gateway to the Lewis River Valley
Portland-Vancouver USA, in Southwest Washington.

When we say Land Here, we mean it in every sense.

- Four deep-water ports, Portland International Airport, four public colleges or universities, and multiple major healthcare organizations are within a 30 minute drive of Woodland. If private flight is more your way, the Woodland State Airport (adjacent to Interstate 5) is also available to you.
- Some of the easiest access to Interstate 5 from industrial areas, and great access to the BNSF Railway/Union Pacific north-south mainline are right here in Woodland.
- A diverse and growing base of industry, including everything from tourism to aircraft interiors and food processing to cabinet-making, calls Woodland home.
- The City of Woodland recently annexed 466 acres of green field property into the light industrial zone.
- The Port of Woodland has more than 200 acres of light industrial property currently available.
- Woodland is home to a burgeoning, educated workforce, with a city leadership and staff that's deeply interested in attracting jobs to the community.
- Woodland's downtown revitalization effort is in high gear, working with the city to develop sensible and attractive design standards that work for both existing, and future, businesses who enjoy a bustling "down home" civic center.

Woodland defines "Quality of Place"

As the Gateway to the Lewis River Valley, Woodland's "place" is just where you'll want to live.

Woodland's award-winning public schools are a highlight of the community, and a source of pride to those who live here, and its proximity to Washington State University Vancouver, Portland State University, Lower Columbia College and Clark College offer employers the best trained and educated workers the area has to offer.

Woodland's connection to the outdoors and world-class recreation and tourism is highlighted across the area, from Horseshoe Lake Park to water recreation along the pristine Lewis River, to Mount St. Helens, and the Gifford Pinchot National Forest, all within a 40-minute drive.

Enjoy fresh fruit and vegetables grown in the beautiful and bountiful Woodland Bottoms, or fish caught fresh from the mighty Columbia and Lewis rivers, and wrap it all up by enjoying a play at Loves Street Playhouse, or taking in a street concert during the Hot Summer Nights series, but also revel in the fact that more culture is available 30 minutes away, in Portland/Vancouver USA.

Discover how to live in Woodland.

Woodland stands ready to help you discover the possibilities.
Port of Woodland: www.portofwoodland.com or 360.225.6555
City of Woodland: www.ci.woodland.wa.us or 360.225.8281
Chamber: www.woodlandwachamber.com or 360.225.9552

